

From Special Issue 1/Aug. 20, 2007

Review of Across All Worlds

Across All Worlds is the most recent work by Baxter Kruger. It is excellent and we highly recommend it. Of all the current Trinitarian authors, Kruger is by far the best at saying the same thing Karl Barth, T.F. Torrance and J.B. Torrance were saying. He is also the clearest and easiest to understand. If you can only read one author, read him. In this newest book he shows how the truth of our adoption wars against the darkness of our own fallen minds and brings healing to our deepest hurts. You can find it at www.perichoresis.org.